

As an active listener to XM radio I respectfully urge the FCC to reject the National Association of Broadcasters petition 04-160. The station owners and braodcasters can compete like they are supposed to in a captialist society. Instant traffic and weather are a valuable service and XM should be allowed to provide that service. VCR
Firestone, Co